

UNESCO- ENVIRONMENT

Title	Assessing Women Roles and Strengthening their Involvement in Environmental Projects Implemented in Rural Areas by Local Authorities and NGO's: Case Study Jordan River Rift Valley- Palestine
Funding Agency	UNESCO through the Palestinian Women Research and Development Center (PWRDC)
Project Period	August 2010- October 2011
Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To assess rates of women participation in environmental projects compared to men, and the level of their involvement in these projects in the study area.• To assess perceptions of women, roles and contributions in environmental projects (core verses complimentary roles, decision making verses followers roles, participation in projects planning and activities) in the study area.• To compare of the level of awareness on the importance of environmental projects and environmental issues between and women in the study area.• To address drawbacks of conducted environmental projects in the study area.• To help in empowering community females and strengthening their roles in environmental projects
Project Outputs	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Study report (in progress)- Awareness material (in progress)
	